I've attached the email providing our "high level" feedback to the "Approach" document.

I'm not at all sure what the purpose of the call Monday is, but it is my understanding that the call is prep for a Principals' call (I don't know the time/date). It might be part of responding to Dimple Chaudhary's and Carlton Waterhouse's questions. While Greg (and others?) prepared a response to those questions (ORC staff did not provide input to those answers), we're now having a call to prep for the Principals' call.

If anyone has additional information, feel free to describe it now. OR wait until tomorrow at dawn 😊
